PRESS RELEASE

Fondation du Collège de l'immobilier's 2010-2011 Excellence Night

$ 18,000 IN EXCELLENCE AWARDS HANDED OUT TO TOP GRADUATES OF THE COLLÈGE DE L'IMMOBILIER

(ÎLE-DES-SŒURS, June 26, 2011) – At its 2010-2011 Excellence Night, which was held on June 20 in Montréal, the Fondation du Collège de l'immobilier du Québec handed out $17,000 in excellence awards to the 17 students who received the best cumulative average in their respective programs in 2010.

In addition, a “Grand Excellence Award” of $1,000 was awarded to the Collège graduate who obtained the highest overall average, from all programs, in 2010. This award was presented to Louis Sabourin, chartered real estate broker at Century 21- Maison 3D.com of Gatineau and a student in the (former) Real Estate Broker program. Mr Sabourin obtained an average of 100 per cent!

Gino Chouinard, a recipient of four Artis trophies, hosted the evening, much to the delight of the 125 or so people from the residential real estate, commercial real estate and mortgage brokerage industries who were in attendance. The Fondation du Collège de l'immobilier's Excellence Night is the largest recognition event for real estate training in Québec.

The brokers honoured at this event come from or work in the Montréal, Laval, Laurentides, Montérégie, Outaouais, Estrie and Québec City areas. They studied at the Collège de l'immobilier in 2010, either in the classroom, in virtual classes, or via distance education, in English or in French.

Since the launch of the Excellence Program in 2003, close to $130,000 has been handed out as Excellence Awards in the real estate field.

“The Collège, its Fondation and their partners congratulate the winners of this 8th annual Excellence Night and re-emphasize their commitment to the development of Québec’s commercial real estate, residential real estate and mortgage brokerage professionals,” said Ms. Linda Grondin, Manager of Communications at the Collège de l’immobilier du Québec and its Fondation.
